1. About These Terms

These Website Terms and Conditions explain the rules for using the Joinery First website at www.joineryfirst.co.uk. By accessing or using the website, you agree to use it in accordance with these terms. If you do not agree, please stop using the website.

The website provides information about our joinery, carpentry and interior installation services and allows visitors to contact us about potential projects.

2. About Joinery First

Joinery First provides carpentry, joinery and interior fitting services in West Yorkshire and surrounding areas, subject to availability and agreement. References to “we”, “us” and “our” in these terms mean Joinery First.

For enquiries about the website, please use the contact form at www.joineryfirst.co.uk.

3. Website Information

We aim to keep information on the website clear and accurate, but descriptions, photographs, service availability and other content are provided for general information only and may change without notice.

Measurements, suitability, materials, prices, timescales and the scope of any proposed work must be confirmed separately. Website content is not a binding offer to carry out work.

4. Project Photographs and AI-Enhanced Images

Our portfolio features genuine examples of joinery work completed by the people behind Joinery First. Some photographs may be digitally enhanced or styled using artificial intelligence to illustrate how a completed space could look when furnished, decorated or presented in different lighting.

Digitally enhanced images are illustrative and should not be treated as an exact record of the original setting, furnishings or finishes. The joinery work featured is genuine, and original project photographs can be requested through our website contact form.

5. Enquiries and Quotations

Submitting an enquiry, requesting a quotation or contacting us through the website does not create a contract or guarantee that we will undertake the work.

Any quotation, scope of work, pricing, payment arrangements, scheduling, variations and cancellation terms will be confirmed separately before work is agreed. Where applicable, your statutory consumer rights remain unaffected.

6. Acceptable Website Use

You agree not to misuse the website, attempt to gain unauthorised access, interfere with its operation, introduce malicious software or use the website for unlawful or fraudulent purposes.

You must provide information that is accurate to the best of your knowledge when making an enquiry.

7. Intellectual Property

Unless otherwise indicated, the website design, text, branding, photographs and other original content are owned by or licensed to Joinery First and are protected by applicable intellectual property laws.

You may view and print content for your personal, non-commercial use. You must not copy, reproduce, distribute or commercially exploit our content without prior written permission, except where permitted by law.

8. Third-Party Websites and Services

Our website may contain links to third-party websites or use third-party services, including Wix website hosting. These are operated independently and may have their own terms and privacy policies.

We are not responsible for the content or availability of third-party websites, except to the extent required by law.

9. Website Availability and Liability

We make reasonable efforts to keep the website available and secure, but we cannot guarantee uninterrupted access or that all content will always be free from errors.

Nothing in these terms excludes or limits liability that cannot lawfully be excluded or limited, including liability for death or personal injury caused by negligence, fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation, or your statutory consumer rights.

Subject to those protections, we are not responsible for losses arising solely from reliance on general website information where details should reasonably have been confirmed with us before a decision was made.

10. Privacy and Cookies

Personal information submitted through the website is handled in accordance with our Privacy Policy. Information about cookies and visitor preferences is provided in our Cookie Policy. Both documents are available through the website.

11. Changes to These Terms

We may update these Website Terms and Conditions to reflect changes to the website, our services or applicable requirements. The latest version will be published on this website with an updated revision date.

12. Governing Law

These website terms are governed by the laws of England and Wales. Nothing in this clause removes any mandatory consumer protections or rights you may have under applicable law.
